Benefitting

The COLORADO GOLD MEDAL INITIATIVE

Join us at the Hiwan Golf Club at and enjoy some of the best views of the Rocky Mountains!

This event benefits the Colorado Gold Medal Initiative, an athlete-centered talent development initiative, with the goal of sustainable Olympic excellence by Colorado athletes in snow sports.

Hiwan Golf Club is a private golf and country club located in Evergreen, Colorado. Home of the Colorado Open from 1964 to 1991, Hiwan Golf Club is just twenty-five miles west of downtown Denver, in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains situated at 7,665 feet. Come and enjoy a chance to play an exquisite private course and support one of your favorite non-profit organizations at the same time.

Gold Medal Initiative Update

100% of net funds are given directly back to the athletes and disciplines

- ❖ Colorado's top Alpine J2 athletes competed in the eastern US and in Europe.
- ❖ 13 and 14 year old athletes had a local opportunity for speed training with USST athletes and staff.
- ❖ RMD Freestyle athletes gained inverted and off-axis jump qualifications and were qualified at three separate locations by USSA. Colorado All-Star athletes were trained by top Aerials Coaches at an All-Star Water Ramp Camp.
- ❖ Top RMD Jumping/Nordic Combined juniors trained alongside USST, Austria, Norway, and other nations in Lillehammer, Norway and at World Juniors.
